CELL PHONE RULES:

1. Phones will be used primarily for communication between parent and student.
2. Phones will be turned off when chaperones and/or tour guides are speaking.
3. Phones will be turned off when visiting memorials, museums, the cemetery, and other place of historic or national interest.
4. Parents are responsible for the charges that are accrued through the use of the cell phone
5. Students are responsible for their own cell phone. It is recommended that a portable charger be brought on the trip. Phones will not be charged overnight, however there are opportunities to charge them on the bus.
6. Misuse of a cell phone will result in the phone being confiscated by a chaperone, and the phone will be returned upon our arrival in Demarest.
7. Phones will be turned off when "lights out" is called by the chaperones and will stay off for the remainder of the night. Student phones and iPods will be handed into a chaperone each night and returned each morning.
