One School, One Book @ LLE

LLE is taking part in a special, communitywide shared reading event. We have asked families to read at home the book: Save Me a Seat by Sarah Weeks and Gita Varadarajan. In school, students will be invited to answer daily trivia questions to encourage and reward attentive listening. In class, students will explore the book through activities and discussion. Throughout the month, everyone will be talking about Save me a Seat by Gita Varadarajan and Sarah Weeks! Gita Varadarajan will be visiting the school during Read Across America Week. Thank you Mrs. Worgul and all involved in helping us make this initiative a reality! A special thank you to the PTO for providing a book for each LLE family.

SCHOLASTIC

MLK DAY

On January 21st, we celebrated Martin Luther King's birthday and his accomplishments for our country. In our schools, the students learn about his accomplishments, and how to treat people with love and respect. Students read biographies, created class books, and did many different activities to show their respect for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Check out these projects and learn about students' dreams!
