American Education Week

At LLE and CRS, the students and staff participated in American Education week from November 16th through the 20th. Each day there was a new and fun activity. Monday was D.E.A.R. Day when everyone dropped everything and read a book of their choice. Tuesday was Career Mystery Day when a parent from each class got to share their career with the students. On Wednesday the students brought in thank you cards for staff at their respective schools. On Thursday families could make a donation to the Office of Concern Food Pantry in Englewood. On Friday students and staff showed off their Wildcat spirit for Spirit Day! Thank you to everyone that participated in American Education week! It was a true success!

Thanksgiving Sing-along

We hope everyone had a happy and healthy Thanksgiving. Along with Thanksgiving projects and stories done in their own classrooms the students of CRS got to participate in a Thanksgiving sing along with Mrs. Mach. The students had so much fun singing and dancing to the music!

Spotlight on Third Grade

Third graders can't mask their excitement about character traits! Students have been learning the difference between physical traits, emotions, and character traits in reading. They are learning how to use evidence to infer character traits. We are currently reading the book, The Hundred Dresses by Eleanor Estes, to gain a deeper understanding of a character's personality traits and changes they go through. Students are learning how to look at a character's actions, words, and thoughts to infer character traits versus what the author and other characters say about them. Also, students have learned how to describe themselves using internal and external traits.

With the holidays approaching, we are getting ready to create our holiday gifts for our loved ones and friends. We thought it would be special to bring some holiday cheer to those who mean the most to us! Third grade plans to continue to stay happy, safe, and healthy throughout the holidays. We can't wait for all that we achieve in the New Year!
